TAX REFORM AND CUTS TO THE WORK OPPORTUNITY TAX CREDIT

(Mr. MCEACHIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCEACHIN. Mr. Speaker, today, I rise against H.R. 1, the so-called Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, and its effects on our veterans.

H.R. 1 would cut the successful work opportunity tax credit, a Federal credit available for employers to incentivize them to hire veterans.

In 2016, there were 453,000 veterans that were unemployed nationwide—16,000, alone, in Virginia.

Mr. Speaker, today, on their behalf, I call on my Republican colleagues to find solutions that do not sacrifice those who have sacrificed enough.

House Republicans have suggested that the work opportunity tax credit, at a cost of $1 billion, is simply too expensive to keep in place. However, I cannot help but wonder why the same is not said about repealing the estate tax, a $269 billion tax cut for the wealthy.

My Democratic colleagues and I are taking a different approach by founding the Reinvesting in Our Returning Heroes Task Force. Instead of hurting, we are helping veteran businessowners and veterans who need jobs.

Mr. Speaker, my father is buried in Arlington. He was a Korean war veteran. He said that the American GI only asked of his country what he was prepared to give, and that is his best.

Mr. Speaker, this tax cut is not our best.

CONGRATULATING MICHAEL FIRESTINE ON RECEIVING BRUNING AWARD

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Michael Firestine as he receives the prestigious Bruning Award from the American Bankers Association Center for Agricultural and Rural Banking.

Mike Firestine's leadership and outstanding dedication to providing credit and financial guidance to farmers, ranchers, and rural businesses is well known in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He has been an agricultural banker with the same bank for more than 35 years.

Mike began his ag banking career in 1978, with the Lebanon National Valley Bank, which later merged with Fulton Bank, where Mr. Firestine is currently a senior vice president.

Over the course of his career, Mike has helped scores of young farmers establish themselves in the industry. His counsel and advice propelled many to success.

In many ways, Mike has stayed true to his roots. He was born and raised in a small town in Pennsylvania, where his grandfather was a dairy farmer. He runs a family farm, where he produces pumpkins and other crops and raises Hereford cattle.

Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to recognize Mike Firestine on this tremendous achievement and an outstanding career in agriculture.

GUN VIOLENCE

(Mr. SCHNEIDER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SCHNEIDER. Mr. Speaker, here we are again, mourning the senseless loss of life from yet another terrible mass shooting.

Last Sunday, at their church in Texas, 26 more Americans were cut down by a gunman. The oldest was 77 years old. The youngest was 17 months old.

This is just a few weeks after Las Vegas endured the deadliest shooting in our country's history and in the backdrop of ongoing violence in cities, towns, and homes across the country that claims an average of 93 lives each and every day.

The response from this Chamber is deafening silence.

Mr. Speaker, how can we face this epidemic without even a debate?

I am open to any commonsense idea to make progress on this issue, from universal background checks to limiting access to high-capacity magazines and military-style assault weapons.

I have introduced legislation to help prevent theft from the Federal Firearm Licensees, expand background checks, and close purchase monitoring loopholes.

I know there is no one single solution, but we cannot allow this epidemic to continue without even a discussion on what we can do. Together, we have the opportunity to save lives.

I urge my colleagues to act.

HONORING VETERANS DAY

(Mr. PALAZZO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PALAZZO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize America's veterans.

Saturday is Veterans Day, a time to recognize our bravest men and women who answered the call to defend our great Nation against our enemies. Words are not enough to say thank you for everything you have endured and sacrificed on America's behalf.

As a fellow veteran, and on behalf of the good families of Mississippi's Fourth Congressional District, I want to convey my appreciation to you and your families.

Many of us have seen the perils of war and conflict. Many have been injured in the line of duty, and many have paid the ultimate sacrifice before the altar of freedom.

Because of this display of sacrifice, future generations may enjoy the blessings of what our country stands for: the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. I am proud to have had the opportunity to serve alongside such brave men and women.

So, veterans, we are a free nation because of the bravery of you and your families. Happy Veterans Day, and God bless you.

GOP TAX PLAN

(Mr. LOWENTHAL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LOWENTHAL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to join the chorus of Americans across the country who are gravely concerned about the reckless Republican tax plan.

Middle class families in my district know that this plan won't help to get them ahead, and it is not because they are doing the math wrong. The plan throws a buffet full of enormous tax cuts for multinational corporations and billionaire real estate investors, and it leaves hardworking families to fight for table scraps.

Tens of millions of middle class families will ultimately face a tax hike, and the repeal of the State and local deduction raises taxes on many families in my district in California.

For example, in Orange County, my constituents deduct an average of $6,500 a year using the SALT provision. This proposal sends them a bill.

Republicans are asking my constituents to pay more, only to let companies that expand overseas pay less. That simply doesn't make sense.

I urge all of my colleagues, especially my neighbors in California, to reject this tax hike on middle class families.

THANKING OUR VETERANS

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Mr. Speaker, I rise tonight to recognize and thank our veterans. We will all be doing that this coming Saturday on Veterans Day. They sacrificed so much and we are so glad to have them here to be able to celebrate and thank them.

I recommend that everybody please take part in the events that you have in your community. Go to the parades, go to the barbecues, and take a minute to thank a veteran.

Things we can do around here as legislators are like we did this week with several pieces of legislation, helping veterans with VA so that they would have more access for telemedicine, which makes technology more available and provides better doctors for diagnosing veterans and giving them what they need.
